ATC's "Operation Trick or Treat" Hits 14 More Strip Clubs In Statewide Sting

November 24, 2015

Baton Rouge, La. - Office of Alcohol and Tobacco Control (ATC) undercover agents cited 14 additional adult entertainment venues during the Agency's undercover statewide investigation named "Operation Trick or Treat". Strip clubs were issued citations for prostitution, lewd acts, and drug activity.

Six of the businesses were issued emergency suspensions due to the threat to public safety. The following strip clubs were ordered to stop selling alcohol and/or tobacco products immediately:

- Shelly's – Houma
- Temptations – Sulphur
- Club Vixen – Lake Charles
- Club Cabaret – West Lake
- Judy's Lounge – Morgan City
- Temptations – Morgan City

This statewide operation comes only weeks after 9 clubs were cited in the French Quarter in New Orleans.

"ATC has two words for strip clubs across the state; straighten up," said ATC Commissioner Troy Hebert. "It's simple. If you allow drugs and prostitution, your alcohol permit will be in jeopardy."

The following businesses received citations and will be scheduled for administrative hearings in coming weeks:
